July 2023

The start of new school year is just around the corner and the Sleepy Eye Elementary Staff is anxiously awaiting the start of another new year. Sleepy Eye School started transitioning to Online Registration two years ago so the traditional back to school packet will be smaller now. This year a few things are included in the mailing. Other information sheets will be available at Open house (e.g. Season Pass Payment form, United Way forms, etc.)

All new and returning K-6 students should enrolled/registered ONLINE by August 18, 2023. Please visit our school website at: <https://www.sleepyeyeschools.com/registration/> to complete the enrollment process.

Reminder: You will need to complete the Busing Request form and Weekend Food Bag request online when you register, so be sure to look for those forms once you are on the website.

We have enclosed an Application for Educational Benefits form in this mailing. It’s critical that we have EVERY FAMILY complete the form even if you don’t feel you may qualify. This helps generate government money for our school which is very important for us to function.
- * For School closings, please listen to: Radio stations WCCO (830); KNUJ (860); SAM (107.3); Z99 (99.1); and KLJR (97.7). or check the school’s website at: www.sleepyeyeschools.com.
We will use our Infinite Campus notification system and School Dojo to alert you if we need to.

Up-to-date School immunizations are mandated by State Law for all K-12 students to enter school. New Kindergarten students and new students to the district will also need to have a copy of their birth certificates as mandated by State Law, along with a copy of immunizations.

Please feel free to visit the school or call me in the Elementary Office (794-7903, ext. 1409) if you have questions or concerns. Office hours are 7:30 am – 3:30 pm. Communication between home and school encourages success for each student. I am looking forward to an exciting new school year!

Sincerely yours,

John Cselovszki, Elementary Principal
